DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 35,37, and 39-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Independent claim 35 lacks a transitional phrase. The transitional phrases "comprising", "consisting essentially of" and "consisting of" define the scope of a claim with respect to what unrecited additional components or steps, if any, are excluded from the scope of the claim (note: the transitional term "comprising", is synonymous with "including," "containing," or "characterized by"). See MPEP 2111.03. Furthermore, the claims lack method steps, which affect the procedure in manipulative sense, for performing the claimed procedure/ method. The court decided that "[t]o be entitled to weight ... structural limitations must affect method in a manipulative sense and not amount to mere claiming of use of a particular structure." See Exparte Pfeiffer 782 O.G. 639, 1962 CD 408 (also, see 135 USPQ 31).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 35, and dependent claims thereof, would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
